

CERTIFICATES

ISO 14001 accredits our commitment to the environment, minimizing impacts and favoring the best management of resources.

GLOBALG.A.P. is an internationally recognized set of agricultural standards dedicated to Good Agricultural Practices (GAP) among which is the welfare of animals.

ISO 9001 determines the requirements for a Quality Management System.

IFS Food Standard is a recognized standard that focuses on food safety and the quality of processes and products

Friend of the Sea is the main certification standard for products and services that respect and protect the marine environment.

BAP, "Best Aquaculture Practices", is the world's most complete program on good aquaculture practices. The commitment to the environment, the social environment, animal welfare and consumer welfare must be demonstrated.